First Aid

Product Description

The HypaClean Absorbent Powder is an essential tool designed to effectively clean body fluid spills of all kinds. The powder is highly absorbent — 10 grams of powder absorbs 1 litre of liquid.

The powder is easy to apply, requires no previous preparation and instantly forms into a gel when sprinkled over fluid, making it ideal for emergency clean-up. It also contains a disinfectant agent that sanitises and prevents cross contamination.

HypaClean Absorbent Powder is available in multiple sizes or single use sachets ideal for first aid kits.
