Product Description

Introducing the RS PRO range of COSHH Hazardous Substance Storage Cabinets. These high-quality, leakproof cabinets are ideal for the safe storage of flammable liquids, paints, pesticides and many other hazardous substances. The cabinet features a welded body which stops any leakage from the substances stored within the cabinet, ensuring that any hazardous substances are not exposed to the area they are kept in. These cabinets are essential to ensure COSHH regulations, as well as various other regulations to do with storing hazardous and flammable substances, are met.
