

P20

Foldable Pruning Knives with Plastic Handle

PRODUCT DETAILS

- Special hook design of the folding blade
- Comfortable plastic handle
- High-quality pruning knife for pruning of very delicate trees such as peaches
- Also for pruning young trees in the nursery and for thinning out fruit bunches
- Easy pruning and thinning out from the high quality blade
- Folding blade for safer transportation
- Sold in retail packaging

PRODUCT ATTRIBUTES

| Product    |  |  |  |  |
|------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| P20 | 190 mm                                                                              | 7.48 in                                                                             | 100 g                                                                                 | 3,53 oz                                                                               |

Follow the Fish!

