Cordless Optical TrackMan®

Premium level of comfort and cordless freedom

- Exceptionally comfortable ergonomic design
- Cordless freedom
- Eight buttons
- Fingertip-based control
- Patented Marble® optical technology

If you're using your computer all day and night, the Logitech® Cordless Optical TrackMan® is designed to give you a premium level of comfort and cordless freedom. The exceptionally comfortable ergonomic design provides unmatched palm support – even after extended use. The sculpted shape and soft-touch surface support your hand more than ever before. Logitech's cordless technology helps eliminate cable clutter. And with eight buttons – including Forward, Back, Cruise Control™ and Drag-lock buttons – you'll enjoy one-touch access to common tasks and activities. Fingertip-based control enables fast, accurate cursor movements. And the Patented Marble® optical technology ensures smooth tracking.
