DESCRIPTION

WORKBENCH 2000 WITH CABINET 1 DRAWER

Professional workbench measuring 2 metres in length with a sheet metal top for greater comfort in your workshop.

With its worktop and cabinet featuring one drawer on ball bearing slides, you benefit from a functional and practical workspace for carrying out all your tasks with ease.

In addition, its removable shelving unit and square side perforations (10 per 38 mm) for hanging your tools offer increased flexibility and adaptability for all situations.

And thanks to its large interior storage capacity and security guaranteed by a key lock, you can store and secure your equipment with confidence.

Finally, it has a bin holder (1 or 2 compartments for recycling).

Workbench delivered unassembled.
